

The Charter Commission

wants to hear from you!

The 2005-2006 Charter Commission is considering 42 proposed amendments to the City Charter. These proposals cover a wide range of topics in city government, such as departments, planning/zoning, elections, ethics, and Neighborhood Boards, just to name a few. Join us for an informational briefing and tell the Commission which proposals you'd like to see on the 2006 General Election ballot.
